The assigned judge of the Superior Court, having been appointed by the Special Master to consider defense motions to disqualify the Maricopa County Attorney's Office, hereby

ORDERS:

1. No later than Friday, February 12, 2010, each party shall file a pre-hearing statement which shall include the name and contact information of each witness whom that party intends to call at the hearing; the substance of each witness's expected testimony; the party's good faith estimate of the amount of time required for each witness; and a list of all documents intangible items or other things the party intends to present at the hearing.
2. Failure to file a pre-hearing statement as required by Order No. 1 above shall be considered waiver of any right to present evidence or argument.
3. After receipt of each pre-hearing statement, the Court will determine if evidentiary hearings or oral argument will be granted in any particular case.
4. Copies of any filings shall be sent by e-mail to gcobb@courts.az.gov on or
